

Questions 21 – 24

Choose the correct letter, A, B or C.

Buildings made of plastic

21. Why did buildings made of plastic fail to please the public in the 1960s?

- A. People didn't think they were good for the environment.
- B. People didn't want to live in them.
- C. People didn't find them visually appealing.

22. In the 1960s and 1970s, engineers were unable to overcome the problem of

- A. damage caused in the production process.
- B. the effects of light and water.
- C. the potential danger of wind.

23. Luke and Millie agree to try to get more information about present-day plastics from

- A. journals.
- B. a PhD student.
- C. websites.

24. What do Luke and Millie agree about the article by Peterson?

- A. It provided useful examples.
- B. It was easy to understand.
- C. It was a good introduction to the topic.

Questions 25 – 30

What description applies to each of the following structures?

Choose SIX answers from the box and write the correct letter, A–G, next to questions 25–30.

Descriptions

- A. easy to transport
- B. not much room inside
- C. made from recycled materials
- D. designed to promote technology
- E. never actually built
- F. easy to keep clean
- G. very strong construction

Structures

- 25. the 'house of the future' (1957)
- 26. the 'wonderhouse' (1964)
- 27. spaceship houses (1968–78)
- 28. foam houses (1979–83)
- 29. plastic exhibition hall
- 30. New Zealand house

- 21. B
- 22. B
- 23. A
- 24. B
- 25. G
- 26. E
- 27. B
- 28. D
- 29. A
- 30. C