

Questions 21–25

Choose the correct letter, A, B or C.

Value Survey on House Prices

- 21 According to James and Anna, the Value Survey measured the cost of houses by calculating
- A the total price of building a new house.
 - B the size of house a typical family can afford.
 - C the price of houses compared to average income.
- 22 Anna says the Value Survey is unusual because
- A it compares prices in different cities.
 - B it is the oldest survey of its kind.
 - C it publishes its results annually.
- 23 The students decide that New Zealand house prices are high because of
- A the cost of construction materials.
 - B the shortage of builders.
 - C the rules concerning land use.
- 24 When the students talk about transport they are
- A concerned there is no plan.
 - B worried about rising costs.
 - C alarmed by increasing congestion.
- 25 The students agree that the next Value Survey will
- A compare a wider number of locations.
 - B indicate a future trend in house prices.
 - C advise against regulation of house prices.

Questions 26–30

What aspect of the Value Survey did each of the following people criticize?

Choose FIVE answers from the box and write the correct letter, A–G, next to questions 26–30.

Aspects of the survey criticized

- A organization of final text
- B researchers' qualifications
- C period covered
- D level of funding
- E lack of public access to full information
- F old-fashioned systems of data analysis
- G way of defining home-buyers' wealth

People

- 26 Andrew Coleman _____
- 27 Professor Massey _____
- 28 Richard Bernard _____
- 29 Professor Lowndes _____
- 30 Maria Darling _____

21 C
22 A
23 C
24 A
25 B
26 C
27 G
28 F
29 A
30 E