

Outdoor Activities

Questions 21 and 22. Choose TWO letters, A–E.

What do the speakers agree are the two reasons why children play outdoors less now than in the past?

- A. Concerns about traffic
- B. Limited outdoor play facilities
- C. Increased time spent online
- D. Preference for indoor play
- E. Reduction in free time

Questions 23 and 24. Choose TWO letters, A–E.

In his assignment, which two aspects of outdoor play does Ravi want to focus on?

- A. How it helps children to evaluate risk
- B. How it broadens their horizons
- C. How it aids children's muscular development
- D. How it improves children's digestion
- E. How it teaches children about the environment

Questions 25 and 26. Choose TWO letters, A–E.

According to Ravi, in which two ways are children's periods of outdoor play now different from a generation ago?

- A. They are less dangerous.
- B. They involve fewer children.
- C. They usually last a shorter time.
- D. They include fewer made-up games.
- E. They involve fewer chasing games.

Questions 27–30

Choose the correct letter: A, B, or C.

27. Ravi thinks parents should be more concerned about the decline of outdoor play because

- A. It affects family relationships.
- B. It leads to health problems later in life.
- C. It makes childhood less enjoyable.

28. What does Ravi say that schools should do with regard to outdoor play?

- A. Revise their aims.
- B. Spend more money on it.
- C. Listen to the views of parents.

29. What did Smith and Barker say about children in rural areas?

- A. They tend not to be allowed on farmland.
- B. They receive more supervision outdoors.
- C. They spend more time outdoors than city children.

30. What problem does Dr Chang highlight about Smith and Barker's research?

- A. Its findings are inconclusive.
- B. It is too old to be useful.
- C. Its focus is limited.

21-22. A, E

23-24. A, D

25-26. C, D

27. B

28. A

29. A

30. C