

Questions 31–40

Complete the notes below.

Write ONE WORD ONLY for each answer.

Insects as a food source

Reasons of being a food source

- They have a lot of protein and contain 31 _____.
- Their waste products don't harm the soil or the 32 _____ on farmland.
- Their production requires less expense and little 33 _____ compared to other animals.
- Some can be added to animal feed as a kind of 34 _____.

The wild versus farming

From the wild:

- it could lead to the loss of a species
- people may be harmed by the 35 _____ they contain.

Insect farms:

- this can supply the growing demand in the 36 _____ of some countries
- the 37 _____ of the insects may be affected.

The challenges

- Different kinds of insect require a different temperature to breed.
- Farmers and researchers are unclear how to deal with 38 _____.
- Better tanks need to be developed so 39 _____ faster.
- Farmers need to develop a strategy for 40 _____ the insects.

1. vitamins
2. rivers
3. space
4. antibiotic
5. bacteria
6. cities
7. taste
8. disease
9. cleaning
10. marketing