

Part 4

Complete the notes below

Write NO MORE THAN TWO WORDS for each answer

History of Music in Britain

In the 18th century

- During the Industrial Revolution people moved to cities to work in the 31 _____.
- In the 1850s, the culture was influenced greatly by 32 _____ from different countries.
- Originally music reflected the work life of different 33 _____ in those days.
- Different songs were created in the same 34 _____, although people were from a variety of nations.
- The songs written by the workers during this period mainly came from their feelings about harsh 35 _____.
- Some small musical works were composed by people who were protesting against difficult living conditions.
- The musical trends were led by 36 _____ performers.

In the 19th century

- During this period, some musical groups had expanded their popularity among 37 _____.
- In the late 1870s, the 38 _____ came into contact with these flourishing musical traditions.
- Some music produced by these groups is still preserved in museums.

Nowadays

- These musical genres still exert an influence on 39 _____ culture.
- Enthusiastic fans are still collecting and keeping the 40 _____ of music from those days.

31 factories
32 immigration
33 industries
34 language
35 jobs
36 young
37 audiences
38 middle class
39 classical
40 recordings